

Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct sets out the standards of behavior expected of every employee, contractor, and officer of Northbridge Analytics. Effective January 2026.

1. Respect and Non-Discrimination

Employees must treat colleagues, clients, and partners with respect regardless of race, gender, religion, age, disability, or any other protected characteristic. Harassment or discrimination of any kind will not be tolerated.

2. Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose any financial or personal interest that could reasonably be seen to conflict with their duties, including outside employment, board positions, or significant investments in competitors or clients.

3. Gifts and Hospitality

Employees may accept gifts from clients or vendors valued under 2,000 rupees. Gifts exceeding this value must be declined or reported to the Compliance team and may need to be surrendered.

4. Confidentiality

Employees must not disclose confidential company or client information to any third party, whether during or after their employment, except as required by law or with prior written consent.

5. Reporting Violations

Employees who witness a violation of this Code are expected to report it to their manager, HR, or through the anonymous ethics hotline. Retaliation against anyone who reports a concern in good faith is strictly prohibited.

6. Disciplinary Action

Violations of this Code may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment, depending on the severity and nature of the violation.
